

Organization and Management Theory (OMT) division

AOM 2012 Annual Meeting
"The Informal Economy"
Boston (MA), USA, August 3–7, 2012

Please help the OMT division at the Academy of Management create a GREAT program in Boston 2012!

Many EGOSians are members and friends of OMT and as we seek to enhance the visibility and participation of EGOSian scholars in the OMT program, we hope you will volunteer to review for the OMT division and provide up to three high-quality reviews for fellow members. Please note that even if you have reviewed in the past, you still need to sign up again for the 2012 Meeting!

To sign up, please visit <http://review.aomonline.org/> and click the 'Sign Up Now' button. You will have to create a user account and choose your areas of expertise (i.e. keywords) for the divisions or interest groups for which you want to review. The sign up process should not take more than 10 minutes.

And, don't forget: submit YOUR best work to the OMT division! You can even self-nominate for our prestigious awards:

- 1) Best Paper Award for the paper which offers the most significant contributions to OMT in the refereed scholarly program paper (may be co-authored; may be empirical or conceptual). OMT gratefully acknowledges the sponsorship of SAGE Publications.
- 2) Lou Pondy Best Dissertation Paper for the best paper based on a dissertation in the refereed scholarly program (the paper cannot be co-authored and must be clearly identified as dissertation-based at the time of submission). If you wish to be considered for the Pondy, please be sure to mark the box identifying your submission as a student submission when uploading your paper to the AOM website.
- 3) Best International Paper in the refereed scholarly program regarding themes and content of interest internationally.
- 4) Best Symposium Award for a symposium submitted to the annual meeting that stimulates, integrates or extends discussions about OMT.

The winning papers for all awards will be selected by a panel of distinguished OMT scholars.

Thanks in advance for volunteering, and thanks for making the OMT program great!
